GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE

As we start another year I would like to bring you up to date on the activities of both the Connecticut Society and the General Society. Without a doubt the highlight of 2009 for the Connecticut Society was the hosting of the annual Massing of the Colors which was held at the First Church of Christ in Wethersfield in early November. The intimate setting of this lovely historic church was a perfect backdrop for the many hereditary and patriotic societies in attendance to display their colors. The music was stirring and the program inspirational. It was a wonderful opportunity for us to reflect on what it means to be descended from the founders and patriots of our great country. It made me proud to be an American and prouder still to be a Mayflower descendant. My thanks to Mary Brown and Bill Lane and their committee for such a successful event! And thanks to our own Mary Agliardo you can view the highlights of the Massing of the Colors ceremony on our website at www.ctmayflower.org.

Mary Brown and I represented the Connecticut Society at the annual General Board of Assistants meeting in historic Annapolis, Maryland in September. The General Board of Assistants consists of the various officers of the General Society and two representatives from each state society. This annual meeting is the only time during the year that the General Board of Assistants meets and the meeting was packed with reports of the various officers and committees. You can read the entire proceedings in the most recent edition of The Mayflower Quarterly. As a result of formal action taken

Lavius Arad Robinson, Jr., MD

An active and beloved member of many genealogical and historic societies, including this one, passed on in October of 2009. Dr. Lavius Robinson was an eleventh generation descendant from Reverend John Robinson, the Pilgrim Pastor.

Born in 1927, he was raised by his grandparents on the family farm in Putnam, CT. and received his high school diploma in absentia while serving in the Navy. He earned his B.A. Degree from UCONN and his medical degree from Tufts. He had a 43-year career as a solo practitioner of family medicine in Danielson, CT. and was known for his personalized treatment, including home visits. During a remarkable medical career, Dr. Robinson as an attending physician, Chief of Medicine, and Chief of Staff at Day Kimball Hospital and was instrumental in developing the first intensive care unit there.

Dr. Robinson was a board of education member in Killingly and was on the ballot for a third term at the time of his death.

The CT Society of Mayflower Descendants sends sincere condolences to Dr. Robinson's family.

at this meeting membership in the Society is now open to descendants of all passengers on the Mayflower—men, women and children passengers who landed and remained at Plymouth (but not the crew who returned to England). Historically membership had been limited to descendants of male heads of families. I would urge you to submit supplementals based on this significant change. I was also extremely proud to accept an award on behalf of our archivist, Gregory Thompson, which was presented by the General Society for his many hours of service in the technological preservation of the records of the Connecticut Society. Thank you, Greg, for all you do for our society.

I would also like to call your attention to an article in the December edition of The Mayflower Quarterly, written by Connecticut junior member, Faith Mangiafico. Faith describes her quest to achieve the Girl Scout Gold Award, which is the highest achievement a Girl Scout can attain. Faith's project involves her Mayflower ancestry and is a great example of the younger generation's interest in history and the Mayflower in particular. We hope Faith will be an inspiration to juniors around the country and we wish her well as she completes her project. Finally, I hope that you are planning to attend our semi-annual luncheon meeting on Saturday, April 17, 2010, at the Gallery Restaurant in Glastonbury. Program chair Polly Gunther has arranged a great musical program that I know you won't want to miss. Please send in your reservation as soon as possible and plan on sharing in the friendship of your Mayflower cousins. As always, if any of you are interested in helping your Society in any way, please give me a call.

Don Studley,

Governor

NEWS FLASH!

NEW ELIGIBLE MAYFLOWER PASSENGER ANCESTORS!

Some time ago, Plymouth opened up three new Mayflower lines for the eligible ancestors of females who made the passage in 1620 and who had children with husbands who did not make the voyage. They are:

Joan Hurst, wife of John Tilley
Elizabeth Fisher, second wife of Stephen Hopkins
Mary Norris, first wife of Isaac Allerton

Recently, Plymouth has approved a policy that departs radically from their established practice. They have opened lines from all wives of Mayflower Compact signers and of children who were on the Mayflower and left descendants. The women whose descendants are now eligible are:

Priscilla Mullins Alden	Mrs. Edward Fuller
Mary Norris Allerton	Elizabeth Fisher Hopkins
Elinor Billington	Elizabeth Tilley Howland
Mary Brewster	Alice Mullins
Susanna Chilton	Joan Hurst Tilley
Sara Eaton	Susanna White
Susanna Winslow

The children whose descendants are now eligible are:

Bartholomew Allerton	Mary Allerton Cushman
Remember Allerton	Samuel Eaton
Francis Billington	Samuel Fuller
Love Brewster	Constance Hopkins
Mary Chilton	Giles Hopkins
John Cooke	Joseph Rogers
Resolved White

Joan Hurst, Elizabeth Fisher, and Mary Norris reflect new lines – those of children of these women who were not fathered by Mayflower passengers.

None of the rest will create new lines, as each has already been available using the husbands or fathers. However, over the years, our current historian (Midge Hurtuk) has gotten many inquiries and requests about using these women and children either as first lines or as supplemental lines. Some descendants wish to recognize their maternal ancestors who sacrificed, suffered, and contributed as much as their paternal counterparts. Some simply have a favorite – and want the names listed on that passenger line on their Mayflower certificates.

While this is a very welcome eligibility change, it is not a financial change. If you want to do a supplemental (or know someone who wants to do a first line), the cost is still the same, $150. If you're interested, get in touch with Midge at mhurtuk@aol.com, and she'll get you started. In many cases, a supplemental using the above ancestors will mean just the preparation of an application. In other cases, such as if your original papers are very old, or if one of the above ancestors introduces a new line for you, there may be documentation to do. In all cases, Midge can check your original papers and be able to let you know what needs to be done. She will also keep you posted on any changes to this list through the Nutmeg Gratings. Plymouth is still working on the final list, and there may be even further additions.

At its bi-annual meeting on April 17, 2010, The Society of Mayflower Descendants in the State of CT presents

TOM CALLINAN

“Callinan is an expert at getting the audience to take part in the performance.”
- Diane M. Hovenesian, The Evening Gazette, Worcester, MA.

Armed with an array of musical instruments from the wind, string, and percussion families, Tom Callinan is at home with a symphony orchestra; in a solo concert; telling stories in-tandem with wife Ann Shapiro; raising the rafters with “The Morgans,” Connecticut's premier Irish, folk, and sea songs ensemble; or mixing old-timey songs and tunes with bluegrass as one-quarter of “Fancy Folk.”

spanning pre-K through college. He also works with senior citizens and does therapeutic recreation at nursing homes and rehabilitation facilities.

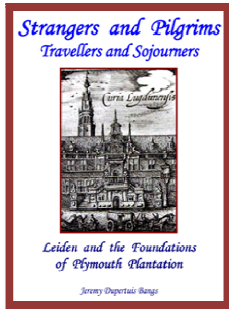

As a songwriter, he creates specially commissioned songs and jingles; and travels from Maine to Florida and beyond, spreading good will and camaraderie to, for, and with audiences of all ages.

Designated Connecticut's first “Official State Troubadour” in 1991 by the CT General Assembly and Governor Lowell P. Weicker, Jr., each year Tom presents assemblies, workshops, residencies and/or teacher-training for schools

Strangers and Pilgrims, Travelers and Sojourners: Leiden and the Foundations of Plymouth Plantation, by Jeremy Dupertuis Bangs

This book, published in 2009 and distributed by the General Society of Mayflower Descendants in Plymouth, is a Herculean effort by the founder and director of the Leiden American Pilgrim Museum in Holland. The author of a dozen books, Bangs graduated from the University of Leiden with a Ph.D. in 1976, and was previously the curator of both the Leiden Pilgrim Documents Center, and Plimouth Plantation in Massachusetts.

Eight-hundred-ninety-three pages in length (including all footnotes, lists, appendices, indices, and bibliographies), this marvelously researched book contains dozens of seventeenth century illustrations, engravings, maps, photographs and drawings. The book begins in England with a brief history of the religious turmoil of the Tudor Age, and the beginning of the Protestant rebellion in Britain. Using the actual writings of the men of the time, Bangs outlines how and why this particular group of Puritans became Separatists, how clergy such as Richard Clyfton and John Robinson gave sermons in church by day, and how they were repeated among neighbors and friends by William Brewster in the evenings. Bangs explains the laws of the land, and how certain Separatists were ordered fined or jailed, while some outspoken men even lost their lives.

The majority of Bangs' tome takes place after the Scrooby Separatists landed in Amsterdam and then moved to Leiden. He outlines the arguments, debates and divisions among the various groups of English refugees, and how they did not always get along. He also gives us a glimpse into scenes of everyday life, such as the local marketplace, weddings, fairs, and houses of the English refugees. We also see into the lives of the men, women and children who made their homes in Leiden in the early seventeenth century, including what jobs and chores they performed, and what church services were like. Bangs introduces us to the Walloons, a group of French-speaking Protestant refugees also making their home in Holland. Interestingly, Plymouth's first governor, John Carver, had been a member of the Leiden Walloon church before joining John Robinson and the Scrooby group.

Bangs concludes his book with the resolution of the Scrooby Separatists to leave Holland for the New World and the reasons behind this momentous decision. The last chapters focuses on the journey to America, the Mayflower Compact, the early church, and the Plymouth Colony's relationship with the native peoples, and with later English groups such as the Massachusetts Bay Colony.

Anyone wishing a scrupulously detailed, wonderfully researched account of the lives of the Mayflower pilgrims should not hesitate to pick up a copy of this book. While the length of the book may be off-putting to some, it actually reads more like a novel than an historical text and is highly interesting. The cost of the book is $55, plus $12 shipping. It can be bought in Plymouth, or ordered by calling Mayflower Families at 508.746.5058.

Here Shall I Die Ashore: STEPHEN HOPKINS: Bermuda Castaway, Jamestown Survivor, and Mayflower Pilgrim*, by Caleb Johnson

Here Shall I Die Ashore is the latest book by Mayflower scholar and historian Caleb Johnson, the researcher who discovered Stephen Hopkins' true English origins, the baptismal records of his children, and the burial record for his first wife. The adventurous Hopkins not only participated in the founding of Plymouth Colony but, prior to that, had been shipwrecked in Bermuda, and had lived in early Jamestown Colony, Virginia. In fact,

Hopkins was the only Mayflower passenger to have lived in both early American colonies. In addition to the biography, this 270-page book also includes many original primary sources, including the two surviving accounts of the Bermuda shipwreck, and an excerpt from a 1622 pamphlet describing Hopkins' trek to visit Wampanoag Sachem Massasoit. This work includes two scholarly peer-reviewed journal articles on Stephen Hopkins from "The American Genealogist," one written by Johnson, and the other written by Ernie Christensen. This book is available in both soft and hardcover at major book stores and online.

Kudos to Greg Thompson

Greg Thompson, who operates the Web page for this society, was recognized recently for his unimaginable effort in digitalizing the records of decades of the Society's paperwork. Four-thousand applications and their supporting documents are now in an electronic format.

The General Society of Mayflower Descendants, at its annual meeting in September, gave Greg the Governor General's Commendation and Appreciation Award. At its annual meeting in October, the recipient of Greg's work, the Connecticut Society, also recognized Greg for his effort.

THE FURTHER ADVENTURES OF RICHARD WARREN XV

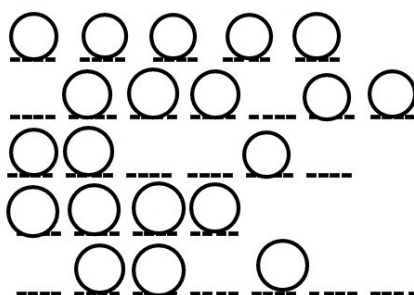

At 6:30 on a snowy Tuesday morning, Mrs. Richard Warren XIV awoke to the sound of a large vehicle grinding up her long driveway and squeaking to a stop in front of her house on Mayflower Road. Peering out her bedroom window, she saw her son, Richard Warren XV, getting out of a Mayflower Moving Co. van with two men, who opened the back of the rig and started handing out an enormous box.

“Richard Warren XV, what on earth are you bringing into this house?” Mrs. Warren XIV called through the open window.

“Hey, Mom, wait till you see this. I made it myself. It’s a
